

Gregory Quinn is Managing Partner for Caribbean Cinemas –the largest chain of cinemas in the Caribbean and a developer of commercial real estate in the region. Gregory assists in identifying and supporting the development of new projects, as well as, overseeing the company’s holdings in the Dominican Republic, Panama and Guatemala. In addition, Gregory works Puerto Rico and several other Caribbean islands, as well as in Guyana, and Bolivia. Prior to joining the company, Gregory started his professional career as an investment banker in the Media & Telecom group at Merrill Lynch in New York City. Gregory also worked at Financo, a boutique investment firm specializing in Mergers & Acquisitions in the Retail & Apparel industries. Gregory holds his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and his M.B.A. from Columbia Business School.