

UNTITLED

LA BASED ENTERTAINMENT MANAGEMENT COMPANY FOR-CREDIT SPRING INTERNSHIP 2025

JANUARY 13 - APRIL 25

Untitled Entertainment is a leading, LA-based management company that represents filmmakers, writers, producers, actors, and more. The company was founded in 1999 by partners, Jason Weinberg & Stephanie Simon.

The company is recruiting 2025 interns! This hybrid/remote internship serves to supplement undergraduate/graduate learning, deliver on invaluable professional development, and grant access to premier industry leaders through exclusive networking opportunities. This experience is credit-only and part-time.

You will be exposed to a living, breathing, real-time deal-making environment that requires a strict standard of confidentiality as well as adherence to a series of non-negotiable professional expectations.

The hybrid flexibility of our program boosts time management proficiency by supporting and strengthening course load applications rather than detracting from your studies. Interns are expected to dedicate 12-20 hours of dedicated work time weekly. Accommodations can be made for college/university-specific programming.

During the internship you will:

- Gain industry knowledge through speaker series covering the various facets of representation and script development
- Get exposure to high-profile clients, producers, and executives
- Contribute to the company's current slate of projects
- Read, summarize and analyze books and screenplays; provide "coverage"
- Learn how to roll calls, manage schedules, and shadow assistants
- Develop critical professional skills and communications techniques
- Benefit from personalized guidance 1:1 with a dedicated mentor
- Receive individual support and essential feedback from the program manager
- Grow your Hollywood network by connecting with our program alumni
- Complete the program equipped with insights on what it takes to work in representation and how to break into the industry

Requirements:

- Genuine interest in entertainment and/or representation and avid media consumer
- Strong attention to detail
- Showcase professional written and verbal communication skills
- Must be enrolled in an accredited undergraduate or graduate program
- Experience or exposure to Microsoft Suite, Google, and MacOS

Applications will be fielded through Breezy, updated link to follow!

